Where am I covered?

You are covered for accidental loss or damage in the UK, Isle of Man and Channel Islands or whilst temporarily removed anywhere in the world and liability during temporary visits elsewhere in the world

What are my obligations?

- You must take care when answering any questions we ask by ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete
- You must use your locks, safes, alarms and any other security measures in a sensible and practical manner to ensure the security of your home and possessions
- You must let us know if your home is unfurnished or unoccupied for more than 30 days in a row
- You must provide us with details of any building work or heat processes where the estimated value of the works is in excess of £20,000
- You must follow the claims procedures and use the claims contacts detailed in the Policy

When and how do I pay?

You will need to pay your premium before your cover starts or renews. The broker or insurance intermediary will tell you what premium to pay and the ways to make payment. If you want to pay by instalments, you may be introduced to a specialist premium finance company.

When does cover start and end?

The period of insurance is shown in the Schedule. The Policy normally lasts for a period of 12 months and is annually renewable.

How do I cancel the contract?

You may cancel this insurance by writing to your broker or insurance intermediary within 14 days of either the start of the period of insurance or the date, on which you receive your documents, whichever is the later, this is known as a cooling off period. If you cancel your policy during this period of time, provided you have not made a claim, we will refund your full premium, less an administration charge of £30.00 plus IPT for cancellation.

You may also cancel this insurance at any time by writing to your broker or insurance advisor. Any return premium due to you will depend on how long this insurance has been in force and whether you have made a claim.
